

Robert
Callback

It All Fades Away

17

ROBERT: (in his study, going through his files)

There was some-thing in a des-ert. There was some place wild and green, And a child in a vo-yage I passed through. There are plac-es that I've trav-eled. And so man-y things I've seen. And it all fades a-way - but

8 Rolling folk-rock feel (♩ = 64)

you. I was slid-ing down a mountain I was burn-ing in the sun, I was

THE BRIDGES OF MADISON COUNTY

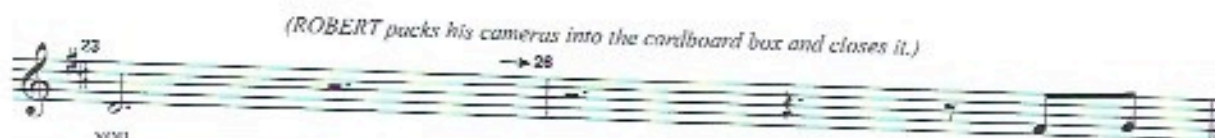

14 15 16
cry-ing with a-maze-ment at the view. I was cap-tur-ing a mo-ment, But when 17 18 19

all is said and done. Well, it all— fades a-way— but you. It all

20 21 22
fades a way, It all— fades a way, It all— fades a way but 23 26

(ROBERT packs his camera into the cardboard box and closes it.)
you. I have 27 28

sailed a cross the o-cans, Past the cit-ies and the farms, On a

29 30 31
nev-er-end-ing quest for some-thing new, And the on-ly things that mat-tered Were the 32 four days in your arms, 'Cause it all fades a way but you. It all

35 fades a way. It all fades a way. It all

37 fades a way but you. 38

(ROBERT holds one last photograph. Finally, he puts it in the box and seals it.)

39-40 41 Ah

46 47

48 49

#17 - It All Fades Away

THE BRIDGES OF MADISON COUNTY

There is

#17 - It All Fades Away

62

fades a - way... It all fades a - way, It all fades a - way... but you... It all fades a - way... It all fades a - way... It all fades a way... But 70

you... But you... But you...

Rit. you.

#17 - It All Fades Away